Ayda BioFusion Whiteboard

Natural aluminium frame inspired in minimalist office trends

Description

The Ayda BioFusion Whiteboard features a sleek modern look thanks to the minimalist design of its natural aluminium frame and biocomposite corners containing coconut fibres. Biocomposites combine natural fibres with polymers, either synthetic or natural, creating materials with a distinctive appearance that are both resistant and durable. Whether you choose the durable dry wipe lacquered steel surface (ideal for frequent use with a 10-year lifespan), the premium ceramic surface (crafted for intensive use and guaranteed for 25 years), or the dry wipe non-magnetic surface with a 5-year warranty (perfect for moderate use), all options let you write, draw, plan and erase over and over again. Use magnets to display information and transform your board into a collaborative hub. Perfect for offices, meeting rooms, training centres and laboratories, these boards are designed to support creativity, organise ideas and facilitate decision-making. Efficient communication is the key to success – all in one place. The set includes an aluminium tray that is easy to attach to the board by clipping, and a kit for the simple 4-corner fixing system that allows for quick installation in either portrait or landscape orientation. The simplest, sturdiest and most robust mounting system around.
